Remarks

Step into a storybook cottage tucked in the heart of Windermere, where history whispers through every room and morning light dances across original 1915 details. Part of the early homestead still remains, giving this home a charm that simply cant be recreated. The family room feels like a cozy tale come to life with its high ceilings, original wood floors, beadboard ceiling, and brick fireplace the kind of spot that begs for gatherings, laughter, and quiet evenings by the fire. Sunlight pours through an abundance of windows, making every corner feel warm and cheerful. A sunny dinette awaits weekend breakfasts, while the formal living room offers a refined space for hosting or unwinding. The spacious laundry room and pantry off the kitchen brings a surprising sense of ease and practicality. Outdoors, the magic continues. This charming cottage backs up to a leafy park, with no homes behind or across the street, offering a rare pocket of privacy and peaceful views. Theres room to grow add an addition, dream up a pool, or simply enjoy the open space as it is. A detached carport and one-car garage add to the homes quaint, functional appeal. And just a short stroll down the lane. the lake awaits with glorious sunrises that feel straight out of a nainting or snectacular night rocket launches. Walk or
